THE WEATHER.

Conditions.

The disturbance that was central Saturday night over Colorado rapidly moved east-northeastward and Sunday night its center was over Lake Michigan, where the lowest barometer reading was 29.14 inches.

The influence of this storm has been widespread precipitation occurring generally over the United States being in the form of snow in northern states.

This storm will advance eastward and be attended by snow and rain in New York and New England. It will be followed by generally fair weather Tuesday in the states east of the Mississippi river, except that there will be local snows in the mountain districts of the middle Atlantic and New England states.

The temperature will rise Monday in the middle Atlantic and New England states and Monday night and Tuesday through the Atlantic states.

The winds along the North Atlantic coast will be east and southeast gales; mildling Atlantic, south shifting to west.

Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast from Cape Hatteras northward to Eastport, Maine.

Forecast.

Northern New England: Snow Monday; clearing Tuesday; clearing and much colder.

Southern New England: Snow, changing to rain Monday; clearing Tuesday; fair and much colder.

Eastern New York: Snow in north and rain in south portion Monday; warmer; Tuesday fair and much colder.

Noting Our Mercies Topic of Rev. A.
W. Burdon's Sermon at Federated Church—Funeral of Mrs. James Mc-Dade—Personals and Notes.

At the Federated church Sunday morning Rev. A. W. Burdon addressed a large congregation, taking for his subject "Noting Our Mercies." Rev. Mr.
Burdon took his text from Psalm 67, 1, and said in part:

"There are seasons when all companies should call upon the merciful God with the same heart effort that David put into this psalm. There are times when the very gates of heaven should be assailed as when Jacob in his struggle held on, saying, 'I will not let Thee go unless Thou bless me.' God willingly gives where there is earnest expectation. There are two classes of people receiving mercies, the grateful and the ap-preciator. When one holds up a grumbler you will find that grumbling has touched his memory. The stream of mercies has flowed unceasing for days, weeks, months and years, and here we find him as poor as though God had never done a thing for him, with memory except clear of every mercy.

Grumbling brings on spiritual blindness, for the soul is out of touch with the infinite and it cannot see the earth at its feet. The mist that hangs over the earth to water it is nothing but fog and blindness cannot see the sun peeping through the clouds and out of the misty tears bringing radiant beauty glistening in every drop and hanging the trees with diamonds and sowing the grass with a million pearls with a jewel for every flower. The grumbler loses all for the soul is out of harmony with the God of Mercies.

The appreciator has his memory touched, but it harks back to the mercies that came to him undeserved. He thinks of a gracious Lord that made and fitted all things for man's good, the things within the body, the soul, the reason and the senses, how this same God has given health, food and friendship, grace and opportunity for development, and up to the present hour God is still gracious. The ap-preciator is a co-operator. He is like the man who sells a good thing and wants people to use it. He unlike the grumbler kicks that things might grow and he knows there is no more there is a spirit of co-operation we will not appreciate our blessings and that fear, discouragement, distrust, disloyalty each is but the backsliding of a lack of the universal spirit.

FUNERAL

Mrs. James McDade.

Saturday morning at her home on North Main street the funeral of Mrs.
James McDade was held, with many relatives and friends attending. At the services in St. Mary's church Rev.
William H. Kennedy sang a requiem mass. About the casket were grouped many beautiful floral forms. The choir rendered two hymns and Mrs.
T. J. Donovan and Nicholas Spellman sang. For a waiting hymn Mr. Spellman rendered "Beautiful Land" on High. Miss L. C. Boudreau presided at the organ. The bearers were Michael Leonard, John McKenney, Michael Shea, Peter Sullivan, John Mc-Grath and Joseph McAvoy. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

Undertakers Shea & Burke had charge of the funeral arrangements.
Among the beautiful flowers were the following: Standing cross from the employees of George P. Madden, a marked Mother from the family, wreath marked Grandma from the grandchildren, wreath from Joseph T. and Thomas Cunningham.

What to Do for Bad Colds

If you want a cough medicine that gives quick and sure action in healing colds, coughs or croup, get Foley's Honey and Tar. It heats inflamed or swollen membranes in throat, chest or bronchial tubes; breaks up tight coughs; loosens the phlegm, makes breathing easier, stops tickling in throat. W. F. Thomas, Summerville, Ga., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is most efficient remedy for coughs, hoarseness, etc. I have used it with excellent results." The Lee & Os-

Town Advisory Committee Appointed

Long List Named at Meeting in County League Rooms on Saturday Afternoon—Assistant State Leader I. C. Davis

Gave Talk on League Projects—Publicity Committee to Expend $250 a Year in Interests of League.

A combined meeting of the executive committee, publicity committee, membership committee and publicity committee of the New London County League was held at the County League rooms, Shetucket street, on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. President C. P. Bushnell presided.

mittee, Charles L. Smith, J. D. Avery and F. S. Hitchcock; publicity committee, J. E. Vaughn, H. R. Branche and John Humphrey. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. F. C. Warner, the county farm bureau manager, advised that there should be an advisory committee in the various towns in the county to assist the directors in each of the towns, and also advised that men should be selected who would take an active interest in the work and from a geographical standpoint that would best cover the territory. S.
L. West of New London was elected as an additional member on the finance committee.

It was voted that the publicity committee be empowered to expend a sum not to exceed $250 per year to bring to the attention of all the communities in the county the advantages of the league, and to take up during the coming year, and suggested ways for more efficient production of milk and farm produce and the better breeding of farm animals.

Mr. Davis suggested the division of labor among the various committees of the organization to best carry out the projects.

KEEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Have Beautiful, Soft Hair of an Even Dark Shade.

Not even a trace of gray shows in your hair after a few applications of Q-Ban Color Restorer to "hair and scalp." Q-Ban is no dye, is harmless, but makes scalp and hair healthy and restores the natural color glands. If your hair is gray, streaked with gray, bleached, thin or falling, apply Q-Ban as directed on label. Soon all your gray hair and entire head of hair gradually turns to an even, beautiful dark shade, leaving all your hair healthy, fluffy, soft, radiant, thick, full of life, fascinating; so evenly dark and handsome no one will suspect you use Q-Ban. Also stops dandruff and falling hair. Sold on a money-back guarantee. Only 50c for a big bottle at Lee & Osgood's Drug Store, Norwich, Conn. Out-of-town
